CHURCH STATISTICS. The Number of Evangelical Christians in the United States.

The following statistics are from advanced sheets of the forthcoming "History of Christianity in the United States," by Rev. Daniel Dorchester, D. D., who has compiled them, as far as possible, from the minutes of 1887. They represent the year 1886, save in a few instances, where they are from the official books of 1886, 1885 or 1884. Occasionally the year books say "congregations," but in nearly all cases the figures represent organized

A Forty-Niner's Reminiscences of Early Days in California.

Colonel Mike Brannigan, the celebrated guide and backman of El Paso, Lex., relates the following reminisconces of early days in San Francisco: "I have come back to San Francisco for the purpose of seeing some of my old friends of the Argonaut days of 1849, that is, as many of them as are alive. I can tell you some interesting things about early times in this city. I owned and drove the first back that ever rumbled over the streets of San Francisco. In 1851 I got $50 a night to drive Catherine Hayes, the famous singer, and her mother, between the Razette House and Tom Maguire's Theater, which was then situated on Washington street, between Montgomery and Kearny. I also got the same sum from several others at the same time for the same trip. Those were good old days, and I, as well, I suppose, as very many others, would wish to see them back again. I saw $1,200 paid for a box in Maguire's Theater on the opening night of Catherine Hayes' season. A Limerick butcher at Sacramento paid $1,300 for a box when she went to the capital city to sing. Dollars in those days were more plentiful than nickels are now. When the mail steamers would arrive I have seen a garibler give a man an ounce of dustthat is, $16-for his place in the long line of auxious people waiting their turn outside the old post-office, which was then at the corner of Brenham place and Clay street. Then you would have to pay $12 a dozen for articles to be laundried, and men used to throw soiled underclothing away and buy new articles rather than pay for washing. appeared in this city. She used to play a banjo and dance jigs at Gilbert's Melodeon, at the corner of Kearny and Clay streets, and got $6 a week. I think that was in 1854 or 1855. She went to Virginia City in 1860 and made a bit. Twenty-dollar gold pieces were showered on the stage for her benefit. My charges then as a hack-driver were $50 a day and all expenses paid. I would like to see that state of things again, and we would have less con plaints about capitalists and the like. Every body was a capitalist in the old
